CLUE TO SUPERVISORY BOARD'S THINKING

CPYRGHT

GEOFFREY POND: "There are late developments in the story about financial help paid to the National Students Association by the Central Intelligence Agency.

"Details from Richard Valeriani, NBC News, Washington."

VALERIANI: "The ten student National Supervisory Board of the NSA is holding an emergency meeting tonight at the group's Washington headquarters.

"Board Chairman Sam Brown of Harvard Divinity School said they will conduct a thorough investigation of the subsidy, since, he said, 'the factual and historical background of the CIA's involvement is not clear.'

"Brown also said this."

BROWN: "The National Supervisory Board is shocked by the recent revelation concerning NSA's involvement with the CIA.

"The news was conveyed to us only in the last several weeks, and is deeply disturbing."

VALERIANI: "Another clue to the Supervisory Board's thinking is provided by this footnote.

"One of its members took part in demonstrations at Columbia University last year, protesting against CIA recruiting on campus.
